

2012 Stone's Throw Pinot Noir

The glory of 2012 shines through in this delicious Pinot. A delirious attack with intense aromas of black cherry, spice and toast. A positively vibrant and fully integrated mid-palate brings forth wave after wave of dark cherry, blackberry and plum flavors. Delightfully bracing acids and gripping tannins lend an engaging structure to the graceful finish.

Like its big brother, the Capital T Reserve, the Stone's Throw is not produced every year. Its last sighting was from the 2011 vintage.
