

2014 Equinox Vineyard Pinot Gris

A first for Territorial, this small lot of Pinot Gris from Equinox stood out from the rest of the vintage right from the beginning. It presented early as particularly interesting and worthy of—demanding even—a reserve bottling.

Floral, urbane and highly poised, this graceful wine opens with aromas of dried flower and herb. It is punctuated with a pleasant minerality subtly enfolded with white pear and passionfruit. The proud and worthy big sister of the Willamette Valley Gris.
